

bread

Created by THUNK!theatre
Karen Balcome and Geoff McBride
Directed by Emily Pearlman Stage Managed by Jess Preece

It's Seth and Ruby's last day in the neighbourhood before they move away. For ever.
They have invited some of their best friends into their makeshift kitchen to share their love of bread making.
So roll up your sleeves, put on an apron, and get ready to bake.

An exciting 20-minute interactive theatre piece that invites participants to make and bake bread.

Saturday September 23rd @ 1pm & 4pm
as part of the Harvest Fair at the Bayshore Park Community Oven

Space is limited.

To register, contact Moniela von Conruhds
m.vonconruhds@pqchc.com

NEIGHBOURHOOD
ARTS | L'ART
DES QUARTIERS 150